TUESDAY, JUNE 5. 1739.

1232.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Petersburg, May 8. O. S.

SEVERAL Expresses have lately passed betwixt this City and Copenhagen. 'Tis not known what Affair is transacting between the two Courts; but whatever it be, we hear that Mr. Titley, the British Minister at Copenhagen, has receiv'd Orders from his Court to act in concert with the Russian Minister — The Duke of Mecklenbourg's Minister having presented a Letter to the Czarina with his Consent to the Marriage of the Princess his Daughter with Prince Anthony Ulrich of Brunswick Wolfenbuttle, that Duke's Plenipotentiary arriv'd here three Days ago, and is to be admitted forthwith to an Audience of the Czarina to make a solemn Demand of the said Princess in Marriage.

Vienna, May 16 O. S. The Dispatches which came hither lately from Constantinople to the Marquis de Mirepoix, Ambassador of France at this Court, say, that since the last Grand Vizier was depos'd, the Turks seem more inclin'd than ever to Peace. And a Courier from the Marquis de Villeneuve, the French Ambassador at Constantinople, who arriv'd the other Day at Belgrade with a Convoy of thirty Turks, has sent another Express hither with Dispatches to the French Ambassador at this Court, containing Proposals for a Cessation of Arms; which Proposals the said Ambassador has communicated to the Emperor, who has since imparted them to the Baron de Brackel, the Minister of Russia, that he may notify them to his Court. We hear that the new Grand Vizier has caus'd circular Letters to be sent to the Greeks and Rascians, wherein he makes great Promises to all their People who will lift under his Colours.

Constantinople, April 30. N. S. We hear that when the new Grand Vizier sent to invite the Marquis de Villeneuve to the Army to treat of Peace, he sent him Answer, 'That he could not undertake such a Journey with Honour and Advantage, because he had not all the necessary Instructions from the Court of Vienna, for which he would however immediately send an Express; that if nevertheless he thought his Presence necessary, he was ready to go, but that he thought it convenient, before he set out, that the other Ministers Plenipotentiary should also be invited thither. The Grand Vizier was very much surpriz'd when he came to Adrianople that he did not find the Troops there from Asia, with which the depos'd Grand Vizier had neglected to reinforce his Army.'

Petersburg, May 9. O. S. We have now the following Particulars of Donduc Ombo's Expedition against the Tartars of Cuban:

'In the Beginning of the Spring he sent one of his Generals with a great Body against the Czercaffians of Trevuge, who live beyond the River of Cuban, where he no sooner arriv'd, but he destroy'd their Habitations; and then marching farther, he heard that the Cuban Tartars were post'd in great Numbers on the River of Changouse; whereupon he hasten'd his March, and surprising the Tartars, he quickly put them to Flight, after having kill'd a good Number of them, and forc'd the rest to retire to the other Side of the River, in which many were drown'd. He took upon this Occasion several thousand Horses and Beeves, and 100,000 Sheep, besides 3000 of their Men Prisoners.'

They write from the Ukraine, that General Munich had sent a Detachment of Horse towards the Bog to watch the Sultan of Bialogred, who was come to incamp with his Army at Balavisa near the Nieher.

Vienna, May 19 O. S. The Great Duke and Dutcheff of Tuscany arriv'd here this Morning from that Country, and were welcom'd by a Discharge of 30 Canon. An Express was lately sent to Constantinople, who 'tis said carries the Emperor's final Resolution concerning the Treaty of Peace.

Leghorn, May 12. O. S. The last Advices from Corsica say, that the French General having receiv'd a full Power to reduce the Malecontents either by Force of Arms, or by an Accommodation, has chose the latter Method; and 'tis reported that a Negotiation is on Foot to put an amicable End to the Troubles of that Island. They add, That the Malecontents often receive Succours from Abroad by small Vessels with Oars.

Genoa, May 16. O. S. We hear from Bastia that 3000 French being on the March towards Balagna, two of the Heads of the Clans on this Side the Mountains laid down their Arms upon the News of his Approach; and that 'twas not doubted but the others would follow their Example. — We have Advice from Smyrna that there has been a great Earthquake, by which a great many Houses and some Mosques were overturn'd, and several Persons buried under their Ruins.

The Fish-Women at Paris being accusom'd to complinent their King upon solemn Occasions, they have now done it on the Proclamation of the Peace. They went for this Purpose in Ceremony to Versailles, where they were kindly received by his Majesty, to whom they made the following singular Compliment; which has since been printed and published by Authority.

S I R E,

'Like good French Women, I and my Companions conceive all the Joy imaginable in what increases your Majesty's Glory. Now as the Peace which you have been pleas'd to make, manifests to the whole World the Greatness of your Soul, the Goodness of your Heart, and your Love for your People, we were not willing to be the last of your Subjects to harangue you on this Occasion, and therefore we come in a Body to make you our Compliments of Thanks. If we were to rack our Brains to address you in the Stile of the florid Speech-makers, we should have used other Terms: But, Sire, we have no Notion of the Delicacy of Language; when we speak to you, 'tis with honest Hearts; we boast of nothing more; and in this Point we will challenge the Proudest to out-do us, or in the Sacrifice of our Lives for your Majesty, were it necessary. We redouble our Prayers to God, and St. Genevieve, our good Patroness, that he may preserve you in Health, and keep you from every Disease; for we earnestly desire that your Reign may be the longest that ever was; that the Dauphin may be like you in every thing; that the Lord may give him an august Spouse with his own Hand, and bless his Marriage by granting you Grand-Children and Great-Grand-Children. We hope, if God give us Life, to see all those Prodigies shortly which will render your Court the most splendid in all the World. These, Sire, are the Prayers which are offer'd daily for your Majesty, and for our August Queen, by

Your most humble, most obedient, most respectful Servants, and mean Subjects,
'The FISH-WOMEN of Paris.'

Dublin, May 29. Saturday died Miss Molyneux, eldest Daughter of the late Sir Thomas Molyneux, Bart. We hear of a Mortification in her Leg.

On Sunday Morning one Galvin, a Taylor, being to be married that Evening, went to wash and bathe himself in the Gulph between Ring's End and Sir John Rogerson's Quay; and going out of his Depth, was drown'd in the Sight of several Persons who were swimming there.

The same Afternoon there was a very great Mobbing in Shelly-Lane, between Thomas-street and Usher's Quay; a Weaver had his Thumb cut clean off with a Hanger, and another had, likewise with a Hanger, a cut from the Pole of his Neck to the lower End of his Shoulder Blade, just as if a Butcher was cleaving a Sheep.

Norwich, June 2. The Publick Ordination is, by the Lord Bishop's Order, put off to Sunday the 15th of July.

Tuesday last being the Anniversary of the Restoration of King Charles the Second, it was observed here with Ringing of Bells, Firing of Guns, and other usual Demonstrations of Joy: In the Forenoon the Right Worshipful the Mayor and Court went to the Cathedral in their Formalities, and heard a Sermon suitable to the Occasion, preach'd by the Rev. Dr. Kerrich; and in the Evening was a Bonfire in the Market-place: After which the Right Worshipful the Mayor invited several Gentlemen to the Hall in the Market, where they drank Healths to his Majesty and the Royal Family, the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole, and many other Loyal Healths.

Such Preparations are making on Mouthold Heath for the Races, that there are Places taken up for near Fifty Booths, which, by a moderate Computation for Stuff, Building, and Ground, will cost near 2000 l. The Wardens and Headsmen of the Carpenters Company are continually viewing the Booths as they are building, that they may be made strong, for the Reception of Gentlemen and Ladies. We hear there are 12 Horses come to this City, in order to be enter'd next Monday for the ensuing Races, besides the Norfolk Hunters; and 'tis believ'd there will be a very grand Appearance of the Nobility and Gentry from London and several other Parts of the Kingdom, Lodgings being already taken here at several Places.

They write from Berlin, that the celebrated M. de la Croze, the King's Librarian and Antiquary, very well known in the Republic of Literature, died there the 10th of May last, in the 78th Year of his Age, being born at Nantes the 4th of December 1661, and is succeeded in his Posts by Gualtier de la Croze, his Nephew. The Deceased was a Member of the King's Privy Council, and of the Royal Academy of Sciences at Berlin, and Professor of Philosophy, and Inspector of the French College of Frederics Werder.

The Fleet from Rio de Janeiro in Brasil, arrived in the River of Lisbon upon May Day, consisting of two Men of War and to Merchant Men, with a rich Cargo, and 20 Millions of Crusadoes in Specie, which amount to about 23 Millions of Florins, or a Million and a half of our Pounds Sterling.

The Spanish Court has received certain Advice that the Galleons will not be at Cadiz till October next.

They write from Hamburg, that tho' M. de Chavigny, the French Minister at Copenhagen, has signify'd to the Danish Court, that the Squadron arriv'd from France was too inconsiderable to give the least Umbrage, yet the King of Denmark has order'd some Men of War to cruise in the Sound to observe the Motions of the Squadrons that are design'd for the Baltick.

Tho' the States of Sweden, at the last Dyer, represented to the King how necessary it was for the Welfare both of his Majesty and the Kingdom, to lay aside that Jealousy which has subsisted so many Years between Sweden and Denmark, and to revive the good Harmony between two such neighbouring Nations; yet, by the Order given from his Swedish Majesty, to cause the Troops that are in the Heart of the Kingdom to march, as soon as ever they are review'd, to the Coasts, and by the Haste with which they are fitting out 15 Men of War and 4 Frigates at Capelleroon, 'tis not to be doubted but the Swedes have some Designs in the Baltick. Mean time the Governor General of Finland has acquainted the King by Letter, that the Russians are at Work upon the Fortifications of Wybourg, and the neighbouring Forts, as if they expected a Visit from some Enemy.

There's great Talk of an Assassin at Brussels who has murder'd several Girls between Mons and Valenciennes, and is so mad, or rather so villainous as to give out, that he will not stop his Hand till he has killed 800. He goes always disguised, but generally in the Habit of a Priest, so that he is not yet apprehended, tho' the Government has set a Reward upon his Head.

They write from Basia, that the Rebels, in order to oblige the Baron de Neuhoft to keep his Word, have arrested his Nephew, and threaten to put him to Death if his Uncle does not return to them by such a Time. By several Letters of the Baron which are intercepted, it appears, that he has order'd his Generals to lay Siege to Ajaccio, Bonifacio, and Porto Vecchio, in order to have sure Harbours when he comes with his Fleet.

We hear from Darby, that James Loton, who is under Sentence of Death in that Gaol for the Murder of a Bastard Child, receiv'd a 5th Reprieve last Thursday by the Post for three Weeks longer.

It having been mention'd in some of the Papers that so many Shads have lately been taken in the Severn as to have been sold at Worcester for a Penny a Hundred, 'tis so far from being true, that we are assur'd from thence, that they were not sold under a Penny per Pound, nor even so cheap as that till they were stale and lay upon the Fishermen's Hands.

One Day last Week Mrs. Elizabeth Seward, a Maiden Gentlewoman of Chelmsford in Essex, about 40 Years of Age, was found drown'd in a Tub of Water in her own Yard.

They write from Bath, that on Monday last the Wife of one Philip Adams, a Bee-Hive or Mat-Maker, was taken out of the River in Long-Mead near that City, by one who was looking after his Fish-Hurdles. It appears by the following Circumstances, that she was murder'd, and that too, in all Probability, by her own Husband. About her Neck was hung a Stone of about 50 lb. Weight; to her Feet was tied another of smaller Weight. Her Legs and Hands were tied in the most severe Manner. Her Cloathes were very ragged. She was known by a Slit in her Nostril, which her inhuman Husband had given her some Time ago. Many Bruises were visible, particularly on both her Shoulders, and in one Place of her Back. On her Nose was also the Appearance of a Blow. By those Bruises, it is believ'd the Villain first Kill'd her and then bound and threw her into the River. The Thursday before, about One in the Morning, Adams and his Father came together to their Lodgings, but it being an unreasonable Hour, the Landlady deny'd 'em Entrance. About Seven they came again, when the Husband in particular seem'd very much confused, and both indeed shed Tears; and when the Landlady ask'd for the Wife, the Son answer'd, She was gone to Bristol to sell herself, but that if she should come back again, desir'd she might be inform'd that he himself was gone there, then went away; but return'd again very shortly for something that in his Confusion he had left behind; when he told the Landlady, he did not know what was the Matter with him, and seem'd someways urgent to leave his Child behind him. It seems he bought the Slips of Cord at a Shop in Horse-street in that City two or three Days before the Fact was committed, at which Time he made heavy Complaints against his Wife. There is a strong Suspicion the Father was privy to the Fact, both by his being with his Son at that unreasonable Hour the Night of the Murder, and his not being able, at the Inquest, to account for that Night. He is sent to Shepton Bridewell. Sunday last Adams was begging with his Child thro' Kinsham, telling a piteous Tale of his Misfortune in losing his Wife, &c.—The Coroner's Jury have brought in their Verdict, Willful Murder.

The Four French Men of War did not fall out of Calais Road for the Baltick before Friday last, notwithstanding the Account given in one of Yesterday's Papers of their being pass'd the Sound, who at the same Time doubles their Number, making them Eight Sail.

Yesterday being the last Day of the Term, several Persons who stood bound over for divers Misdemeanors appeared on their Recognizances in the Court of King's Bench, and were further continued.

The same Day Mr. Hains, the Printer of the Craftsman of July 2. 1737. for which he was fined by the Judges of the Court of King's Bench in the Sum of 200 l. and to be imprison'd for Seven Years, or to find good Security for his Behaviour, was brought up in order to be bail'd, and being examin'd, was remanded back to the King's-Bench Prison.

The same Day Mrs. Mary King, of Covent-Garden, was brought to the King's-Bench-Bar, Westminster, and received Judgment of the said Court for keeping an ill-govern'd and disorderly House, viz. To pay a Fine of 200 l. and to suffer three Months Imprisonment, and to find Security for her good Behaviour for three Years, and to remain in Prison till the Fine is paid.

Yesterday the Right Hon. the House of Peers appointed the Right Rev. Dr. Maddox, Lord Bishop of St. Asaph, to preach before them on Monday next at Westminster-Abbey, being the Anniversary of his Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne.

The same Day the Lord Bishop of Durham lay very ill at his House in Grosvenor's Square.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland being happily recover'd from the Measles, will remove from St. James's to Kensington To-morrow Morning.

This Day begins the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace at Hicks's-Hall, for the County of Middlesex. And

On Thursday next begins the Sessions at the Old Bailey.

The Universal Family MEDICINE,
Still more and more fam'd, after upwards of 15 Years Success with the Publick,

Is sold by the Author's Appointment, by Mr. King, Printsell, in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange; by Mr. Martin, Toy-man, at the Sign of the Duke of Cumberland, in Grosbourn Alley, near Leicester Fields; by Mr. Thomas Brinkley, Postmaster of Bungay in Suffolk; and by Mr. Hildy, Bookseller in York; at 3 s. the Bottle Retail.
It is to be taken at any Season of the Year, and is very agreeable to Young and Old, that Children take it without Trouble, a few Drops being a Dose; all so gentle, that it weakens not the most Aged; it is a safe and effectual Alternative, to be taken in a less Dose than where Purging is necessary, as Excellence inherent in this Medicine, which is a singular Property well known to the Learned, to be in some Cathartic Medicines.

It is in particular,
A Certain and infallible Cure for the
SCURVY, tho' of the longest Standing, and attended with the most aggravated Circumstances (a Disorder so common to English People, that not one in a thousand is wholly exempt from it, and great Numbers are sorely afflicted with it) being a cordial Elixir, peculiarly adapted to that Distemper in all its Forms of appearing, from the slightest itching Humour in the Blood, to its utmost or last Efforts on human Nature.

For it is a true Specifick Cordial, that perfectly cures that Distemper by gentle Evacuation, by Stool and Urine, the only sure and effectual Way perfectly to cure the Scurvy, and prevent Relapses (notwithstanding what may be dissent to the contrary) the Truth of which is witnessed to daily, by the many Thousands that have taken this Medicine. It so powerfully rectifies the Blood and Juices, that scrophulous Cases are also speedily cured by it; and all Spots, Blisters, Pimples, &c. on the Skin, are quickly and entirely taken off, the Patients made lively and brisk, many chronic Diseases prevented, and a due State of Health secured.

It removes all Pain in the Stomach, helps Digestion, opens Obstructions, and is peculiarly serviceable to Maids inclined to, or troubled with the Green Sickness. 'Tis the best Medicine in the World to destroy Worms in Children or grown People, and prevent their Return; for it scours away all that rosy, viscid Humours which breed them in their Bowels, and is so well adapted to all Constitutions, that it is deservedly esteemed both in City and Country, the most general Family Medicine that ever was known to preserve Health, and hinder no Business or Recreation.

Good Allowance is given Wholesale by Mr. King for ready Money to Country Shopkeepers, &c. to sell again. This Medicine will keep many Years in any Climate.
The Directions given with it are large and full.
